

SME Seminar “Tax Essentials for Investing in the Mainland”

Investing and doing business in the Mainland has been a common phenomenon among Hong Kong enterprises, given the close economic relations between Hong Kong and the Mainland. With the development of the Bay Area, these close relations will further be strengthened. Yet in investing and doing business in the Mainland, taxation constitutes one of the most important parts of the process. This seminar has invited tax expert to explain common misunderstandings and facts on the Mainland taxes, and also the proper ways of dealing with them.
