The Mainland and Hong Kong Closer Economic Partnership Arrangement (CEPA) is a free trade agreement signed between the Mainland of China and Hong Kong in 2003. Goods of Hong Kong origin for exportation to the Mainland are eligible for preferential tariff treatment under CEPA. For the purpose of claiming zero tariff benefits, every consignment of goods to the Mainland must be manufactured in Hong Kong and complied with the CEPA rules of origin requirements. They must also be accompanied by a Certificate of Hong Kong Origin - CEPA (CO(CEPA)) issued by Trade and Industry Department or one of the Government Approved Certification Organizations. In this seminar, a representative from the Trade and Industry Department will introduce the CEPA rules of origin, how to apply for Certificate of Hong Kong Origin – CEPA (CO(CEPA)), and answer some frequently asked questions, with a view to assisting the Hong Kong enterprises to capture the opportunities brought by the National 14th Five-Year Plan.
