Still using paper forms for import and export licences/permits (L/Ps) application? Complicated application procedures reducing the work efficiency? Trade Single Window (TSW) provides a one-stop electronic platform for registered users to lodge import and export trade documents with different government departments online to save time in a convenient way. Phase 1 of TSW, first rolled out in December 2018, covers the application of 14 types of L/Ps. Phase 2, to be rolled out progressively starting from mid-2023, will cover another 28 types of L/Ps. In this webinar, representatives from the Customs and Excise Department will introduce the background and latest development of TSW, benefits of using this e-platform, registration procedures and system functions, with a view to assisting SMEs to enhance their work efficiency.
